DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1 and 2 are presented for examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Wexler (US 5,960,409).

Wexler teaches a method for advertising, comprising: contracting with a first affiliate web site (third party service) to embed a first link to an advertisement server within content of said first web site (col. 2, lines 43-46), wherein said first link is sent to a user node in response to a request for said content from said user node to said first affiliate web site (col. 2, lines 46-51); receiving a first advertising request from said user node based upon said first link; and selecting an advertisement, based upon stored information about said user node, to send to said user node in response to said first response to said first advertising request (col. 2, lines 57-61), storing information associated with said first advertising request from said user node (col. 4, lines 61-67); contracting with a second affiliate web site (fourth party) to embed a second link to an advertisement server within content of said second affiliate web site, wherein said second
